HEDI LAHDHIRI

Personal Summery

Higher-level diesel mechanic with twelve years of experience with repairing, maintaining, and overhauling diesel car as well as buses. Extensive knowledge of the most current diesel engine technology and repair standards and techniques. Experience communicating with customers in terms they can easily understand so they have a firm grasp of issues and what they can do to improve vehicle performance. Just as adept at driving buses and cars as I am at repairing them, which is essential for test driving vehicles to ensure they have been properly and fully repaired.
