Dear \ Human Resources

Thank you for your time reviewing my resume. I'm interested in his Banker job. My CV is attached to your evaluation. Given my relevant experience and excellent capabilities, I would appreciate your interest in opening this job. My skills are a perfect skills for this job.I would like to introduce myself as a candidate for the Banker position . As an organized and professional lover of mathematics, I am confident that I can succeed as a Banker. While I am calculated and technical, I am also friendly and have the communication skills vital to the job of a Banker. I believe that my experience and education prove me well-qualified for the Banker position. At Tanta University, I obtained bachelor's degree in Finance. I studied statistics,accounting, economics, portfolio management, business, and many other important topics. I am well-versed in finance, banking, and accounting. I interned at a bank for my capstone and learned a lot about the banking processes I hope you find that I'm eligible for the job you're trying to fill. Please let me know if I can provide you with any additional information about my background and qualifications. I appreciate the time I took to review my credentials and experience. Again, thank you for your interest.

sincere,

Ahmed Farahat
